BE NO FUSION THIS YEAR. Republicans and Populists to Nominate Separate Tickets.

Washington, April 17 .- The efforts of the Populist and Republican leaders gos to W of North Carolina to agree upon terms of fusion have failed, and according to the Populists, there are to be tickets represented by each party in the North Carolina campaign. Democratic success, although both Pritchard and Butler talk hopefully of the prospects. Senator Pritchard has reached the conclusion that the failure of fusion, which gave the Populists and Republicans temporary power in the state, will bring about a Republican vice master tory and the state will go in the McKinley column. Senator Butler, on the deen to order Norsam Partitions, 1956, Gromberg, Greenother hand, is positive that the failure ock, to order mote, insures a Populist victory.
